

VII Polish Outsourcing Forum

Roadshow's annual Outsourcing Forum, held in Warsaw, was held together with major partners ASPIRE and PwC, under the patronage of Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Economy Waldemar Pawlak, Marshal Adam Struzik Mazowiecki, and under the patronage of PaliIZ, the National Chamber of Commerce and PARP.

This year's guests of honor were: Dariusz Rosati - Member of Parliament, former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Janusz Steinhoff - former Deputy Prime Minister and former Minister of Economy, and Richard Patru - Partner, PwC. All three guests emphasized Poland's place in the global economy and how it affects the perception of further development of Poland's outsourcing industry.

Workshops addressed issues such as Shared services and outsourcing for Polish firms, public sector outsourcing, and business models of Indians expanding in Poland. Other issues raised including appropriate education of students and collaboration with universities, and building greater industry awareness. ■
