

Roadshow to India to entice BPOs to Poland

Roadshow Poland, organizer of annual outsourcing conferences for several years, decided to change its strategy and held its first outsourcing conference in India in late April. The event was supported by PAIZ, ASPIRE, PwC, City of Lodz, Cushman & Wakefield, Skanska, Pro Progressio Foundation and several Indian companies which are already present with operations in Poland, including Infosys. Ms. Monika Kapil Mohta, Indian Ambassador to Poland, the Polish Consul General in Mumbai Janusz Wach and representatives of Indian Chambers of Commerce - ISN Prasad and S. Chandrasekhar also attended.

The conference speakers included Romek Lubaczewski, Partner at PwC and winner of the "Lifetime Achievement Award" at the recent Poland Outsourcing and Shared Services Awards; Vic Khan of Alexander Mann Solutions; Scott Newman of State Street; and Mayor of Łódź, Hanna Zdanowska. Companies represented included Infosys, HP, Xerox, Fujitsu, Tate & Lyle, Nordea, SouthWestern, Wipro, and WNS.
